Short-Term Housing Management Regulations

Amendment approved by the 5th Administrative Council Meeting, fall semester, academic year 2014 (November 5, 2014)

Amendment approved by the 10th Administrative Council Meeting, fall semester, Academic year 2020 (January 6, 2021)

1. The National Sun Yat-sen University (hereinafter referred to as “the University”) hereby establishes the regulations on the management of short-term rentals for visiting scholars, faculty members, and university employees who need short-term housing due to work-related needs.
2. The short-term housing refers to 24 dormitory units, including 19 single-room units and 5 multi-room units in service of the accommodation for visiting scholars (the Visiting Scholar Dormitory) or for week-long residency (the Guest House).
3. Applicants and Priorities:
 - (1) Visiting Scholar Dormitory:
 - A. Prestigious visiting scholars recruited by the President.
 - B. International visiting scholars recruited by the university.
 - C. Taiwan visiting scholars recruited by the university.
 - D. Visiting scholars for academic exchange.
 - E. Application officially approved by the President.
 - (2) Guest House:
 - A. Scholars invited to attend the university events.
 - B. NSYSU employees who do not acquire a staff dormitory and has short-term housing needs.
 - C. Application approved by the President.
4. Application and Check-out :
 - (1) Application Procedure:
 - A. Visiting Scholar Dormitory:
 - i. The hosting unit should submit an official application to the Property Management Division, Office of General Affairs in advance. The applying document should indicate the reason for application, the rental period, and be attached with a photocopy of the letter of appointment of the tenant. It is under the approval of the President or his authorized agent should the application be valid.

- ii. The applicant should sign the lease of agreement within 15 days starting from the next day of the approval, and proceed with relevant rental procedure.

B. Guest House :

The tenant or the hosting unit should submit the application to the Property Management Division, Office of General Affairs, prior to the estimated move-in day. The applicant can check-in on the applied move-in day after the approval by the university.

- (2) The university shall provide the dormitory room's essential list to the tenant, who should confirm the list and return the sheet with signature within two days after check-in.

(3) Check-out Procedure:

By the tenant's check-out, the guest house should be restored to the original condition, including the appliances and facilities, keys returned, personal belongings cleared out, and all the bills settled.

The applicants are obliged to recompense for any loss or damage. If the tenant does not fulfill the responsibilities, the hosting unit shall take care of the restoration and relevant charges.

5. Tenancy Period :

(1) Visiting Scholar Dormitory :

A. Tenancy period is subject to the duration granted by the University ◦

- i. For those who would like to extend tenancy due to renewal of appointment, they should apply for approval following the procedure in Point 1 of Article 4 one month prior to the expiration of the tenancy.
 - ii. The tenant should check-out the dormitory upon expiration of the tenancy. Overdue check-out leads to extra accommodation charges until the tenant checks out the dormitory. For overdue tenancy period less than a month, a full month's fees will be charged.
 - iii. When the tenant is hired by the University as a full time faculty member, he/she should check out the dormitory within three month of his/her appointment.
- (2) Guest House: Tenancy period is subject to the applying period approved by the University. Minimum tenancy is 7 days. Tenancy less than 7 days would be counted on a 7-day basis.
 - (3) Faculty members with outstanding academic accomplishments who are recruited by the President of the University shall be exempted from the restrictions.

- (4) If a tenant does not check out of the dormitory three months beyond expiration date, the Property Management Division, Office of General Affairs, reserves the right to legally evict the tenant from the dormitory, or apply for a court order to reinforce the recovery of the dormitory. Any legal expenses arising from the litigations shall be shouldered by the tenant. The case would be submitted to the relevant committees for discussion and the tenant shall be deprived of the right for school accommodation thereafter.

6. Payments :

(1) Visiting Scholar Dormitory:

A. Management Fee: Management fee will either be debited from the salary account of the tenant or paid in cash on a monthly basis. If the tenant extends the tenancy, management fee will double for the extended period. The doubled rate only occurs once.

B. Utility Fees: The tenant should pay for the water, electricity, internet, and off-campus condo fees, etc.

C. The tenant should pay all the costs of the housing upon expiration of tenancy.

D. The University reserves the right to terminate the tenancy contract if the tenant does not pay the overdue bills, and the bills remain outstanding after the University issues the notice. The tenant should still make the payment for all the bills after the termination of the tenancy.

- (2) Guest House : Management fees will be charged on a monthly basis with utilities included. For tenancy less than a month will be charged based on the number of days of residency. For tenancy over a month, the payment should be made by month. If the last month of the tenancy is less than 30 days, the fees would be charged according to the exact numbers of the days of residency.

The collected dormitory management fees shall all be deposited into the University Endowment Fund and managed through a dedicated account. It shall then be used to pay for the construction, amortization, maintenance, repair and management of the dormitory according to the principle of earmarked funds

7. Due diligence and Responsibilities:

- (1) The tenant shall actually live in the dormitory, and may not (sub)-rent, lend, switch, transfer, add or modify the building structure, use it for commercial activities, or other non-residential purposes.

The University shall terminate the tenancy agreement and request the tenant to move out of the unit in case of violations on the preceding regulations; in which case, the tenant shall be deprived of the right for school accommodation thereafter

- (2) The tenant should take care of the cleaning and maintenance of the dormitory during residency.

The tenant could report a repair for damage from fair wear and tear, and the charges will be covered by the University. For damages caused by improper maintenance or usage, the tenant should pay for the costs.

If the tenant renovates the dormitory during tenancy and the renovation is inseparable from the building structure, then the tenant should leave the renovation to the University free of charge unconditionally upon check-out.

If the tenant installs new locks or changes locks, the keys of the locks shall be handed to the University upon check-out.

- (3) For safety and maintenance of the housing, electric cooking appliances are prohibited.

Pets are not allowed.

Renovation on the walls and in the dormitory spaces are forbidden.

- (4) Serious and major violations of the regulations would lead to the termination of the tenancy agreement by the University, and the applicants are responsible for relevant legal duties.

8. The Property Management Division, Office of General Affairs, would take care of repairs and maintenance of the dormitory, which is subject to the damage conditions of the unit as well as the budgets.

9. The Guidelines were approved by the Administrative Council Meeting and submitted to the University President for sanction prior to implementation. The same shall apply to their revisions.
